

Ambassador Roles & Responsibilities

- Support each other as a community of financial planning professionals
- Lead training in your college/division
- Be a local resource for end-users; help answer questions
- Engage in active participation in testing to ensure functionality, ease of use, and data accuracy
- Provide feedback and ideas to the Office of Budget and Planning on the process, training, or resources being offered to support you in your role
- Help to “bridge the gap” by creating a common language and understanding between departmental planners and the Office of Budget and Planning
- Help engage our campus community in highlighting the advantages of communicating “the why”
 - Communication Tool (strategy, cost savings, successes, needs)
 - Reactive vs. Proactive Culture
 - Higher Education Climate (tuition, state support, enrollment trends)
 - Fiduciary Responsibilities
 - Common Language, Platform, and Process
 - Align Finances With Strategy At All Levels of the University
 - Part of Strategic Plan